The Northern Lights and Delights of Iceland! March 18-24, 2019

At just 5 ½ Hours away on the new Direct Flights from Detroit, Iceland is now close, fascinating, friendly and now affordable at $2,349.00! The chilliest thing about Iceland is its name. In January, the average temperature in the capital Reykjavik is higher than that in New York and similar to London. And Iceland’s welcome for tourists is always warm. Almost everyone speaks fluent English and Icelanders aren’t really given to formalities. The telephone directory even lists people by their first name! Reykjavik is a city where you’ll feel safe to walk the streets. With its colorful houses, friendly people and walkable city center, it’s like being in a big village.

This Exclusive MET Tour features 3-nights in Reyjavik the colorful and exciting Capital City, with city tour and admission to the famous healing thermal mineral springs, The Blue Lagoon. We spend 2-nights in South Iceland away from the city lights for hopeful world famous Northern Lights displays, our guides have detailed presentations on the Lights. You will travel the renown “Golden Circle Tour” with stops at the many geothermal geysers. You will see a lot but not spend a lot! Limited Space.

Call or email for full details on these and all of our 2019 and 2020 Vacations & Special Events.

[Our Annual – Longest Day of the Year \[Awesome Alaska Vacation!\]\(#\)](#)

June 20-July 3, 2019 – Two Weeks in Alaska, 7- Day Land Tour followed by 7-Night Voyage of the Glaciers –Inside Passage Cruise. With well over 20 years of touring Alaska, our passengers all agree the best way to experience our “Great Land” is to send a week touring the National Parks and riding the rails, then relax on a Southbound Cruise past the Glaciers to the fabled ports of the Inside Passage, Skagway, Juneau and Ketchikan.

Your Inland Vacation includes Two-Nights in Fairbanks with a tour and Miners Lunch at the Eldorado Gold Mine and a River Cruise on a glacier fed river teaming with salmon. Two-Nights in Denali with a morning National Park Tour when the animals are most active. Two-Nights at the famous Mt. McKinley Lodge with the best views of the “Big One.” Ride the rails on glass domed luxury rail cars with narration and wildlife life viewing!
